In cooperation with IBM the Austrian Federal Railways are organizing a tech-camp (so called "Girls! Tech-Camp") for girls / female students.

This year the camp is taking place for the second time.

Shortly before the summer holidays / break more than 50 girls (btw. 12 and 14 years, from different Viennese schools) are introduced in many different technical professions and (innovative) projects of the ÖBB as well as IBM.

* Impact / benefits

5000 character(s) maximum

Our goal is to stimulate young people's / girls interest in technical professions and show them the various career opportunities of our company and, of course, provide them with relevant information as well.

After the actual event / camp week we are providing the girls (and teachers / participating schools) with relevant information and staying in contact with them in order to keep them updated and raise their interest for technical professions in our company.
