

Dear Sir

80% of cargo can be carried in a container that is half as wide and half as high as an ISO container. A rail network to move these containers could be buried in tunnels similar to sewage pipes under existing roads etc would be much cheaper than new rail/roads. This network could be completely automated ie: driverless

Best Regards

David Avery

6 Odun Road, Appledore, N Devon EX39 1PT

Phone +44 (0) 1237 478014    Mobile +44 (0) 7976 572974

<http://www.navtechradar.com/>

E mail    david@navtechradar.com